

How to Use Apple TV for AirPlay

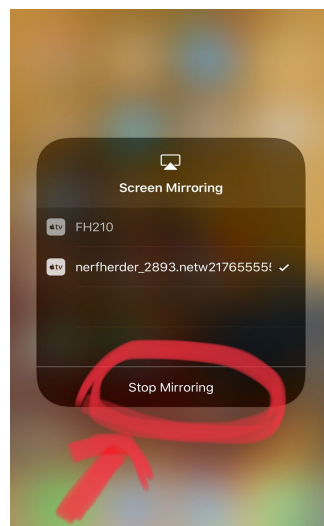

1. After turning on the system via Crestron control panel, select/drag-and-drop video source “Apple TV”
2. When the display/projector shows instruction on how to connect via AirPlay, note the name of the Apple TV (It should correspond with the building and room number you are currently in)

3. Enabling and Using AirPlay on your device
 - a. Ensure both Bluetooth and WiFi are enabled on your device
 - b. For iPhone or iPad

- i. Open your control center
 1. For iPhone X, swipe down from the top right corner of your phone
 2. For iPhone 8, 8 Plus and older, swipe up from the bottom of your phone
 3. For iPad, swipe up from the bottom of your tablet
- ii. Select “Screen Mirroring”

- iii. A list of available Apple TVs will appear
- iv. Select the name corresponding to the building/room number you are in
- v. A passcode will appear on the display. Enter the code on your device
- vi. The display will show what is currently shown on your device
- vii. To stop AirPlay, select “Stop Mirroring” in the “Screen Mirroring” options

How to Use Apple TV for AirPlay

c. For Macbooks

- i. Select the Airplay icon found in your Menu bar

- ii. A list of available Apple TVs will appear
- iii. Select the name corresponding to the building/room number you are in
- iv. A passcode will appear on the display/projector screen. Enter the code on your device
- v. The display will show what is currently shown on your device
- vi. To stop AirPlay, select "Stop Airplay"

